Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

October 22, 2012

"What time is it?! Game time, whoooo!!" This might be one of Coach's most used quotes on game day, and the game against Indianapolis was no exception.

All of us were pumped to play a very solid team once again, but this game in particular had a little more incentive behind it - the NCAA II national tournament. A win against Indy was like a ticket into the prestigious first round match, and we wanted to ride first class all the way there. We had a GREAT crowd at that match: Steph, Kels, and Maddie are all Indiana natives, so their families were all supporting the Jackets, in addition to a few of the usual fans. We came out in the first set playing very well - we stayed neck and neck with Indianapolis and lost the first set feeling pretty confident going into the second one.

Unfortunately, we kind of fell apart and couldn't quite get our bearings for the remainder of the match and lost in three straight sets. Despite the confusing loss we enjoyed a nice meal at Olive Garden as a team. If we were going to bounce back the very next day we needed to leave that game behind and look forward to the good ones yet to come.

The next morning was probably my favorite all season! We drove on the big charter bus to the Rogers' house, where brunch was prepared for all of us. Can I just say that the roundabouts in Indy threw our bus driver for a loop - literally. We must have gone around the same one four times. We got a good laugh out of it and finally made it to Steph's house. After stuffing our faces full of great food we had a really good Bible study for almost an hour. It was so good to debrief on the previous night's game and gain spiritual encouragement from fellow teammates. We were a bit distracted during Bible study as Kurt, our trainer, had made a new friend:

the Rogers' yellow lab. They were inseparable. Well, we left Indy full of fellowship, family, and food, and looking forward to taking out our frustration of the previous night's loss on Kentucky Wesleyan.

We had a rather long bus ride to Kentucky and were not going to drive five hours home with another loss. Not an option. We played better - not our best - and won in four sets. We ate Chick-fil-A on the way back and watched She's the Man...more like quoted the entire movie. Next thing we knew we were back at Cedarville...at 3 a.m.!!!! We slept for a few hours and had practice in the morning. Most of us expected practice to be pretty bad considering we were running on no sleep and the fact that it was the only thing standing between us and fall break. To everyone's surprise it was probably the best practice we have had all year. Guess we will be on a strict regimen of no sleep and morning practices from now on. But in all seriousness it was a fun and competitive practice, and I think we can all say we went to our respective fall break destinations ready for a little time off, but feeling confident in returning to the court afterward.

We play Ursuline College on Tuesday and are planning on praying with the family of one of the girls after the match - please keep that moment in your prayers. Two more home games will follow, on Friday and Saturday, and we hope to come out of this weekend 25-5! Soli Deo Gloria!

Hannah Wagner is a sophomore undeclared major from Claremont, Calif. She is in her second season with the Lady Jackets as an outside hitter.

Meet Coach Doug Walters

Doug Walters has been the head volleyball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He is the sixth head coach in the program's history and the first male to serve in the capacity.

The Lady Jackets have posted 82 victories during Walters' four-year tenure. CU finished with a 22-18 mark in 2011 during the school's NCAA Division II provisional year and was the No. 1 seed in the Ohio Independent Championship Tournament.

Walters' first season with the Lady Jackets was a memorable one as he guided the program to its third National Christian College Athletic Association title in four years. He was tabbed the 2008 NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 27-12 record overall and tied for fourth place out of 15 teams in the American Midwest Conference with a 10-4 mark. The Lady Jackets qualified for the AMC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals.

Cedarville was 15-23 overall in 2009. However, the Lady Jackets were the #2 seed in the AMC Tournament after going 8-4 in the league. CU was 18-20 and 6-4 AMC in 2010 while advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament.

Walters came to Cedarville after assembling a 128-73 record in nine years of high school coaching in southern Ohio. He spent his last two seasons at the prep level at Milford High School, a Division I program near Cincinnati.

Walters previously spent seven years building Eastern High School in Sardinia into one of the top Division III programs in Ohio. The Warriors, who were ranked in the state's Top 10 in three different seasons, won four conference titles, two sectional championships, and were the district runner-up once. He was a four-time conference Coach of the Year and saw eight players continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Walters is the founder and former director of the Greater Miami Volleyball Club. The GMVC was started in 2003 and is a Junior Olympic organization that has quickly built a reputation as one of the top regional clubs in Cincinnati.

Walters continues to be involved at the club level. He is the Elevation Volleyball Club 17's National Team Coach based out of Mason, Ohio.

Additionally, Walters is the volleyball chair of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. He serves as the G-MAC rep to the AVCA Division II Head Coaches Committee and is a member of the AVCA National Poll Committee.

Walters is a 1997 graduate of Northern Kentucky University and he earned his master's degree from the University of Dayton in 2003. Doug and his wife, Angela, reside in Hamersville, Ohio with their daughter Caitlyn, 10.

Volleyball Player of the Week (Oct. 14-20)

Kristen Johnson
Trevecca Naz. • Junior • Franklin, TN

For the fourth time this season, Kristen Johnson has been named the G-MAC Volleyball Athlete of the Week for her efforts in leading the team to a 2-0 week, both 3-1 wins over Union and Martin Methodist. Johnson recorded a triple-double in each of the wins last week, combining for 26 kills, 29 assists and 24 digs.

She averaged 3.71 kills, 4.14 assists and 3.43 digs per set and now ranks third in kills, sixth in hitting percentage and assists, seventh in blocks and digs, and tenth in service aces. She is the only player to be ranked in the top ten in all six categories, in fact she is the only player to be ranked in five different categories.

The Trojans are now 18-11 and 8-3 in their last 11 games, including a current three-match winning streak.
